Friends,

The beginning of November is a vivid reminder that Thanksgiving Day is right around the corner; which is soon followed by the season of Advent and Christmas. These days which are meant to strengthen family bonds and to bring us closer together are often wrought with the temptation of overbooking ourselves in a whirlwind of activities leaving us worn out and bleary eyed. We might, at times, lose our focus.

Johann Wolfgang Von Goethe once said, "Things that matter most must never be at the mercy of things that matter least." November is a good month to personally create a list that will remind us of those things that matter to us the most. For many of us, to be sure, this will be members of our family – those whom we love. However, your list might expand to others. For instance, on your list might be the following: that one teacher at school that has created a spark in your son or daughter's desire to learn and grow; your hairdresser, the name of someone you always want to cut or style your hair because you enjoy the encounter as much as the hair styling; the neighbor you rely on to keep an eye on your house while you're away; your close friends that you can always rely on to be there when your world seems to be unraveling at the seams; and examples such as these could on and on.

In a world of consumerism, we can get attached to our 'things' and sometimes lose sight of those things that matter the most; relationships that give us strength and support, our particular gifts that enable us to help others and make a difference in the world; and of course our faith that sustains us in the struggles of life and gives us hope for the future.

I invite you in this season of Thanksgiving to sit down and write a note of thanks to someone who has made a difference in your life. This will allow you to do two things: first, you will experience true joy in giving thanks; and secondly, you will bring unexpected joy to the person who receives your thanks.

As your pastor, I wish each one of you a blessed Thanksgiving. I thank you for enriching my life and allowing your faith to make a difference in our church and in the world.

Grace & Peace,
Gary

Dear Hunt's Family,

I'm gradually settling in to my new home in Blacksburg. As I write to you today, I have my prayer shawl wrapped around my shoulders and looking out as the rain falls. There have been, and continue to be, many changes for me. Five days after my move, Jeff and Lisa were blessed with the arrival of their son through adoption. I now have 7 beautiful grandchildren. Kaleb Matthew arrived into our family on September 18, 2013 and he was 9 days old. Things are going well and Katie, Lauren, Ryan, and Claire really love their new brother. Ryan is especially happy to have a brother. I have also sold my home (in Maryland) and closing is October 31. God is good.

I have fond memories from over the years at Hunt's. I can't thank Hunt's enough for all the support, acceptance, love and kindness given to me over the ups and downs in life. The prayer shawl reminds me daily of the love and kindness at Hunt's and allows me, as I wrap it around my shoulders, to feel the presence of God. I can not thank you enough for the years together.

As I leave Hunt's and start a new beginning close to my family, I will continue to keep Hunt's in my prayers. I pray for Hunt's to continue to serve God through good mission projects and keeping God's spirit alive through your service and learning through Sunday School, small groups and good worship times. God's blessing, grace and peace be with you.

*In Christian Love,
Carol Highfield*

HUNT'S 3RD QUARTER 2013 FINANCIAL SUMMARY

Following are Hunt's Operating Expenses and Income for 2013 through September. Operating income includes regular offering and donations, payments to the church by our preschool, and income from community groups. Operating expense includes monies for items such as staff salaries, property maintenance and utilities, Christian education, and conference apportionments. Not included are monies donated or spent for missions, memorials, our preschool, or other special funds.

Income	$ 274,212
Expense	268,315
Net	$ 5,897

It is very important for all of us to stay current with our giving. Our church relies on your ongoing generosity to meet its operating expenses. A convenient way to make your donations is through electronic giving, available through the Hunt's website.

If you have any questions about this information, including getting started with electronic giving, please contact Nathan Derr or Linda Keatts.

CONSIDER JOINING A COMMITTEE --- by Ken Parrish---

Hunt's needs you! The spectrum of the gifts we share includes service hours, money, friendliness, wisdom, devotion, visitation, and many other attributes often unconsidered. I have been on several committees over the years and have found that joining a committee unnecessarily strikes fear in a lot of people. What if I can't fulfill the term? What do I know about [finance, business, human resources, fixing things, teaching, education, worship services, cooking, missions, etc]? What can I contribute? What if I don't have the time? What if...? We all have these questions, and unless we take the first step, we'll never know the answer. Someone who ended their term on Trustees last year believed that since they know very little about fixing things, they couldn't contribute value to the committee. What they offered was simply a different perspective, an opinion from a congregation member, and a helping hand. What they brought to the table was equally valuable as the trade skills brought by someone else. The same goes for the finance committee, education committee, pastor-parish relations committee, or any other committee that allows this church to operate. Interest in helping Hunt's succeed is the only requirement for committee membership; particular skills are a bonus offering. Some people get on committees that differ from their day job, just for a change of pace. Some committees meet monthly and others quarterly. No specialization is necessary, just an hour or so of your time. There are several committees that are coming up short on volunteers. Please reconsider if you've turned down a request or step forward if you haven't been approached. It's in everybody's best interest to have functional committees. New faces allow the old ones to try something else.

TRUSTEES --- by Ken Parrish---

The Trustees have several projects in the works. Our "Fall Work Day" was October 26. A great group of 17 people came out Saturday morning and helped clean up and work on some special projects. The appearance of our property is often the first impression for visitors and can be the only impression for passersby. Thank you to Pat Barkdoll, Merle Bayne, Tim Bosley, Nathan Derr, Dan Funderburk, Ann Gallant, Glenn Keatts, Linda Keatts, Steve Lippy, DeWitt Lott, Monty Messersmith, Ken Parrish, Becky Pauliny, Ron Peterson, Susan Schubert, Cynthia Sparks, Robert Sparks, and Dave Young for your time. A special thanks goes to Linda, Becky, and Cynthia who worked on the applesauce crew first and then came out to help with our projects.

Workday projects included leaf clearing, tree trimming, tree removal, cleaning the Agapé House's cellar-way drain, replacing parking lot light bulbs, and replacing one stain glass window light bulb. Ron Peterson is still looking for people to join the Grounds Committee, and he promises that no green-thumb is required. In fact, he said it's a good place to either hone your skills for working around your house or simply to avoid working around your house. Other projects we've been tackling are the repair of the hallway floor leading to the kitchen and the replacement of the convection oven in the kitchen. The gutters around the church building continue to be a problem and we hope to select a suitable contractor to replace the gutters and trim with maintenance-free products. The work at the Agapé House seems to be paying off, as the recent rainfalls have resulted in very little water in the basement and in the 2nd floor meeting room. Perhaps over the winter, reconstruction of the basement can begin and it will become a functional meeting room once again.

BROWNIE TROOP

Brownie Troop #10072 recently started holding its monthly meetings at Hunt's Church. The troop consists of a dozen energetic third graders from Riderwood Elementary that enjoy dancing, crafts and sports in their free time. Some of the girls are already familiar with Hunt's from attending the church or preschool; all are grateful to the church for providing a much needed meeting place. The Brownies are looking forward to meeting more of the church community as the year progresses.

THANK YOU

I would like to thank the Scholarship Committee, as well as Hunt's Church, for the generous scholarship I was awarded for the 2013-2014 school year. This will be my third year at Wake Forest University in North Carolina, and I am so much looking forward to another year of challenging, exciting classes and rewarding activities. I am studying abroad this fall in Dijon, France and having so many wonderful experiences! Thank you so much for your continued support.

Sincerely,
Rebecca Regan

"CASSEROLE MINISTRY"

Due to the regular Hunt's freezer being stocked this month in preparation for our annual Thanksgiving Dinner, we are moving to Plans B, C, and D.

Please either:

- B) Give your casserole to Kathy Davis at church, or call her (410-321-9580) and arrange a time to deliver it to her house. Kathy will store the casseroles in her own freezer and deliver them to Grace Fellowship on the morning of Wednesday, November 6th.

OR

- C) Deliver your casserole directly to Grace Fellowship (9505 Deerco Road, 21093) any day prior to November 6th. Just ask at the information desk inside the entrance for directions to the Charm City Servants' freezer. This is where all of the casseroles from participating churches are collected before delivery

OR

- D) Make and freeze your November casserole and hold on to it until the December delivery, when you can bring two!

Thank you very much for supporting this ministry!
If you have any questions, please contact Kathy Davis (410-321-9580).

Missions News –

Six volunteers from Hunt's Church will be serving a meal to the homeless at Manna House in Baltimore on Saturday morning, November 2.

The dates for the next Baltimore County Christian Workcamp have been decided: July 20-25, 2014.

The Baltimore Region Fall Meeting for the Board of Child Care Auxiliary was attended by Steve & Mary Ellen Lippy. As with many organizations, the Board of Child Care Auxiliary is hurting for volunteers to lead the district. (President, 1st and 2nd Vice Presidents) Also, the Auxiliary is always looking for volunteers for specific projects, many of which are for short durations. Some of these, if you are so inclined after supporting Hunt's annual projects like the ACTC baskets and Shoe Box gifts, include the following:

- Donations for their Thanksgiving baskets, including monetary donations for hams. These items are due November 25.
- Assembling the baskets on November 14 at BCC.
- Donations for their Christmas Store at which the children are able to buy gifts for their family at a very nominal cost. See the Missions bulletin board for possible gift items, most of which are different from the Mid-High project. These are needed by November 25.
- Staffing the Christmas Store at BCC November 29-30.
- Helping with the Christmas party on December 14.
- Baking cookies, probably in February. (More info will follow in subsequent Point issues.)
- Helping with Easter baskets.

If anyone is interested in getting email information directly from BCC or going on a tour to see the BCC campus in Randallstown, let Steve or Mary Ellen know. The Auxiliary's goal is to provide "extras," including unconditional love, to these children at BCC, many, if not most, of whom have severe emotional problems due to their difficult and troubled home lives.

The Missions Committee is an Ad Hoc committee made up of volunteer members, in contrast to individuals recruited and appointed to other church committees. As such, we would like to develop a list of people who are potentially interested in participating in mission projects, but who do not necessarily attend our regular meetings. This would not require a commitment but would be an indication of interest so that the committee might email you if a project or need were to arise. Please let Melissa know of your interest.

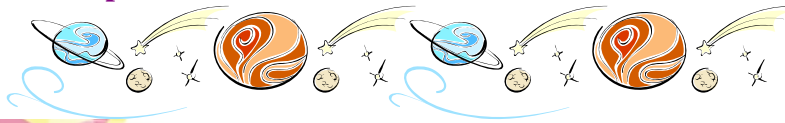

Volunteers in Mission (VIM) teams go throughout the year from churches within the Baltimore-Washington UMC Conference on mission trips. This is such a personally rewarding program that many say that once they participate, they go again (and again) as it is so worthwhile and beneficial.

These VIM trips are similar to what the Baltimore County Christian Workcamp does. Many times they involve follow-up restoration work related to natural disasters like hurricanes or constructing new facilities that are needed, such as a one-room clinic or chapel.

Often the churches organizing these VIM trips, which can be local (e.g., Crisfield, MD), out-of-state (e.g., New Jersey, North Carolina, Louisiana, Mississippi), or out-of-country (e.g., Nicaragua, Costa Rico, Russia), need additional volunteers to augment their teams and will advertise their need for more volunteers.

If you believe you might have an interest in doing a VIM trip sometime and either (1) wish to be notified of any opportunities to tag along with a VIM trip organized by another church and/or (2) would be interested in participating in a Hunt's organized VIM trip, let Melissa know. Then we will let you know if (1) we hear of any openings and/or (2) keep your name on file in case someone at Hunt's wants to organize a trip in the future.

STAR OF RIDERWOOD

Does anyone miss the star atop our steeple at Christmas time? Wouldn't it be nice to have our little star of Bethlehem, er Riderwood, return?

It could... for a price.

The problem is that we need to get to the top of the steeple, and the lift rental is about $1,500.

The trustees and finance committees have (rightly so) placed other priorities on our funds, so the star has not risen for the past 2 years.

If you would like to see the star return, you can designate a contribution for the star, separate from your regular offering.

When we raise enough money, the star can return to light our own little Bethlehem.

HOSTESS GIFTS

The holiday season is quickly approaching! During that time of year many of us will enjoy special times of visiting with family and friends. Selecting the appropriate “Hostess Gift” is often a challenging task.

This year, consider giving a gift that keeps on giving. CDs (for a cost of $10) may be purchased at our annual Turkey Dinner (on November 9th), in the church office, or from Trish Funderburk.

- One CD contains musical selections, played by Karen Powell, from worship services at Hunt’s.
 - Another CD contains various types of musical selections that are played by Karen Powell. – This CD is a 45-minute medley of romantic dance melodies, ragtime and show tunes by her.
- Also included on this CD are three piano/organ duets featuring Beverly Gill.

The monies collected from the sale of these CDs will go to the Karen Powell Memorial Fund. – Let’s pass on the beauty of these two ladies’ God-given talents with our family and friends, who will continue to pass on this music when it is softly played during social gatherings.

Please make your check payable to Hunt’s Memorial UMC. – In the memo section of your check, please write “Karen Powell Memorial Fund.”
