“Words kill, words give life; they’re either poison or fruit – you choose.”

Proverbs 18:21 – The Message by Eugene Peterson

“SHARE A WORD or TWO ABOUT ...”

Dear Friends,

Someone once said, “Choose your words carefully because someday you might have to eat them.” Have you ever said something that you wished you could take back? Have you ever apologized to another person for words you may have used? I dare say that we’ve all used words that have gotten us into trouble.

As a pastor, I am constantly struggling for the right words to say, the right way to say them and for the right time to share them. Not an easy task! I like the story about the minister who got up in the pulpit one Sunday morning with a large band-aid on his face. He told his congregation before he gave his sermon that he ‘cut his face while thinking about his sermon.’ After the service, one of his parishioners met the minister at the door and said, “Reverend, next week why don’t you think about your face and cut your sermon.” Ouch! It’s not always easy to share the right words.

Proverbs 18:21 says, “Words kill, words give life; they’re either poison or fruit – you choose.” Here the psalmist makes it quite clear – the words we use have consequences. Words impact others – either positively or negatively.

That’s an important principle to keep in mind as we begin a busy fall in the life of our congregation. Let me be the first to follow this principle as I share a few words about several ministries at our church.

We will be resuming Sunday school soon. Teachers are needed. To be in compliance with our Safe Sanctuary Policy, we are asking all volunteers and staff members who work with children, youth, and vulnerable adults to undergo background checks and fingerprinting. The church will cover the cost of the procedure. Even though we believe that the people of Hunt’s are people of integrity, strong values, and above reproach, we are following this new procedure to ensure a safe environment for all people (young, elderly, and in-between) to come and learn about God and to grow in their faith. As your pastor, I often tell people in our community that Hunt’s church is a great place to serve and that we are blessed to have so many wonderful people who make up the congregation.

We have been so fortunate to have Mary Margaret Mack, Cara Ehrlich and Nancy Kennedy provide direction and oversight to our Educational Program. I think this is one of our greatest strengths in reaching new people and encouraging people to walk the way of Jesus – the way of service to others. Mary Margaret, Cara, and Nancy have collectively offered 60 years of service to this endeavor. I encourage you to send them a word of appreciation for all that they have done and continue to do to enhance our program.

In the near future, I know that all three women will be stepping down from these responsibilities and offering their talents and gifts to new areas of service. This transition will present new challenges and opportunities for our church. We have begun initial conversations about the possibility of hiring a part-time Religious Education Director. We are also asking for volunteers to step forward (the more the merrier) and contribute their gifts to enhance this important ministry. This summer, we had three young people attend camp at West River. All three children are participants in our Sunday school program. In other words, our education ministry is a launching pad for our young people to grow in all the various faith development stages of their lives.

In October, we will launch our annual fall Stewardship Program. A couple years ago, Hunt's church underwent an intense three-week program based on Robert Schnase's book, Five Practices of Fruitful Congregations. From that experience, we developed a few new ideas for ministry. This year's stewardship program will be highlighting one of those five practices – the practice of Extravagant Generosity. The campaign will be based on the book by Michael Reeves and Jennifer Tyler entitled, Extravagant Generosity: The Heart of Giving (Nashville: Abingdon Press; 2011).

The Stewardship Sundays are as follows:

October 13, 2013 – The Art of Love – Relationships Are Matters of the Heart
Theme – A time of Story and Song
Laity of the church will speak about their journey of faith
Scripture: Deuteronomy 6:4-6/John 13:34-35

October 20, 2013 – Visions and Hope Are Matters of the Heart
Theme – A Common Vision
Scripture: Colossians 3:1

October 27, 2013 – Extravagant Generosity Is an Expression of Your Heart
Theme – Giving is an expression of Love
Scripture: John 3:16/2 Corinthians 8:24

The area of stewardship has been difficult for many churches throughout the country due to what has been called The Great Recession. Hunt's Church has, to a degree, experienced that struggle as well. At the last Finance Committee meeting in August, we reported that the number of pledged giving has remained pretty much the same for the last four years. The good news is that we have been able to make our budget at the end of the year due to your generosity. Yet, each year we still struggle to develop a budget based on the number of pledges made and the anxiety over not knowing if the non-pledged giving will be forthcoming. Quite naturally, our goal is to increase giving over last year. (Specific ways to do that will be forthcoming in our stewardship mailing in the fall.) As your pastor of five years, I have often been told, "Somehow and in some way Hunt's church seems to always come through at the end of the year." I thank God for your extravagant generosity!

Well, I've shared a few words with you about some challenges facing our church. As I said earlier, I often struggle for the right words to use. Sometimes I hit the mark and sometimes I fall short. With that said, I count it a privilege to be the pastor of Hunt's and to be able to serve such a talented and caring congregation. Working together we can do great things. I really believe that! In the months ahead, what we say and what we do will enable us to cultivate our faith and the faith of others. As people of faith, we have many good words to share.

Grace & Peace,

Gary

30th Annual Baltimore County Christian Workcamp (BCCW) Summary

Another SUCCESSFUL and PRODUCTIVE week assisting limited income families in Baltimore County! If the weather from Monday July 22-Friday July 26 was not the best we ever had for a BCCW week, it certainly was in the top three, as it was not too hot, not too humid, and no rain during the day.

Several Hunt's "records" or "first's" were set:

- Most number of volunteers in the week--11
- Most number of volunteers who worked all week--4
- Most number of total days worked--38
- First time for a full Hunt's team for all week (albeit we merged with another team Thursday and Friday, and had some others whom we "accepted" onto our team)
- Due to the large number of volunteers, three Hunt's members were "offered" to a ramp team which had a crew chief but no workers, and they had a great time

At a site in Essex, the Hunt's team designed, purchased the materials, and built a 46' ramp, which included two 3' x 3' landings, a "unique" gate fabricated by Hunt's crew chief Glenn Keatts, as well as steps off one of the landings. On Friday night at our annual BCCW "awards" ceremony, Hunt's received the "dubious" honor of the most expensive ramp for the week, presumably due to it being the longest one and having a gate and steps. In addition, at this site, we replaced a 13+' section of gutter and fascia board, one end of which was on the ground and the other still attached to the house, and cleaned out the gutters. This project took three days and about half an hour on Thursday; after which, we went to a site in Edgemere and built a 45' ramp in less than 1½ days in conjunction with a smaller ramp team.

Besides the Regans (Melissa, Rebecca, and Christopher) who were "farmed" off to the other ramp team, the following worked one or more days on the Hunt's team: Merle Bayne, Pat Barkdoll, Linda Keatts, Glenn Keatts, Steve Lippy, Diane Paulson, Gary Sheffield-James, and Robert Sparks. Many thanks is extended to Glenn, who was the crew chief, and to Robert, who hauled all of the lumber for the ramp. Additionally, Robert provided a ladder, a saw table, and a canopy. Besides having great weather, Glenn said the Italian ice was "delicious" as on two days we received a treat of ices and popsicles from the "Italian ice lady." Glenn's reflections also include: "I really enjoyed working with our group from Hunt's and I think we did great work too. I encourage everyone to try this because I think they will find it very satisfying. Looking forward to next year!"

[That's what we like to hear; that a crew chief will be returning.]

In addition to those who volunteered to work building ramps, thanks to all those who supported BCCW through giving to the Advent and Lenten offerings, as well as special donations; set up tables and chairs on Sunday; brought items to be auctioned off or sold; attended the auction, et. al. Also, thanks to Jody Waters, who bought the food and coordinated the BCCW breakfast on Monday and to those who helped prepare the breakfast: Merle Bayne, Esther Cohen and her friend George, Carol Highfield, Leigh Leonard, Mary Ellen Lippy, Ellie Lott, and Susan Schubert.

Boscov's 25% coupons for October 22 are still available for a donation to BCCW of $5.

A general THANKS to Hunt's for being the host for all of the BCCW meetings, as well as being the base church for the past 22 workcamps! -- Steve Lippy --

Ready for Rally Day!

On Rally Day, Sunday September 8th, we'll welcome all of our teachers and children back from summer vacations far and wide and look forward to another year of Sunday School.

There are about 50 children enrolled and it's evident when we see how many come to the front of the church for the children's sermon!

We currently have a preschool class, a combined pre-k/kindergarten class, a combined 1st/ 2nd grade class, a combined 3rd/ 4th/ 5th grade class, and a Mid-High class.

Many of our volunteers teach on a rotating basis and we need more help, either to teach or to substitute, as our numbers grow.

Please let us know if you are interested – we'd love to hear from you!

Following the 10 o'clock worship service on September 8th, there will be a luncheon in Van Metre Hall.

Everyone attending this luncheon is asked to bring "homemade" side dishes and/or desserts.

Once Lost -- *Now Found

A set of Toyota car keys, plus house keys were found buried on the dirt on the church's lawn. An attachment to these keys contained a Baltimore Orioles' insignia. The reverse side of the insignia advertised the Fields Old Trail Tavern.

“Wanderings Through the Heart and Soul of Karen Powell”

A second CD of Karen Powell’s piano music will be available on Rally Day, September 8th, in Van Metre Hall after the 10 o’clock service. We are most familiar with Karen’s spiritual melodies that will remain in our hearts forever. Yet Karen also had a repertoire of music she played from memory at parties and receptions. Only one time did she allow herself to be recorded. That gift to us is a 45 minute medley of romantic dance melodies, ragtime and show tunes that burst forth from her heart and soul. Also included in the CD are 3 piano/organ duets with Beverly Gill recorded from a 1985 event. (Beverly was Hunt’s organist and choir accompanist from 1951 to 1996.) All who loved Karen and her music will smile, shed a tear and cherish the memories while listening to this CD over and over again. A charge of $10 will cover the cost. Copies of the first CD will also be available. Come by the choir room and see a new picture of Karen alongside the picture of Bev!

An Adult Sunday School class is being started.

When: Starting Sunday, September 15th
Where: Adult Education Room
Time: 9:00 a.m. – 9:45 a.m.

Have you ever thought about the following: We can get anything we want, from anywhere in the world, whenever we want it. That's how it is and that's how we want it to be. Still, our lives aren't any different than other generations before us. Our time is. We want spiritual direction, but it has to be real for us and available when we need it. We want a new format for getting Christian perspectives. NOOMA is the new format. It's short films with communicators that really speak to us. (Most of the commentary is done by Rob Bell.) Compact, portable, and concise. Each NOOMA touches on issues that we care about, that we want to talk about, and it comes in a way that fits our world. It's a format that's there for us when we need it, as we need it, how we need it.

The Adult Sunday School class will be discussing a series of lessons based on the DVD's produced by NOOMA. Each DVD runs approximately 10 – 12 minutes. After each DVD is finished there is a series of questions related to the subject of the DVD.

A brief description of a few of the topics covered by the lessons include:

- Rain Things don't always work out the way we want them to, or the way we think they will. Sometimes we don't even see it coming.
- Sunday Why do we do the things we do? Why do we go to church or give money away? Because we're supposed to or because we think God needs it?
- Kickball We always think we know what's missing from our lives in order to really make us happy, don't we?
- Bullhorn God loves everyone, so a Christian should too.
- She We didn't have anything to do with our birth. We are all here because some woman somewhere gave us life. Her pain, her effort, for our life. And when a mother gives like that to a child, she is showing us what God is like.

If you are interested, please write your name on the sign-up sheet that is located on the bulletin board by the kitchenette or contact either Leigh Leonard or Robert Sparks.

We are looking forward to having you in the class.

JOURNEY THROUGH THE BIBLE

Journey Through the Bible is a long term approach to studying the Bible and highlights pivotal points in the Scripture, lifting up the Bible's most significant stories, themes, events, and people. During each session we will cover four dimensions.

- Dimension 1 helps us get into the main text.
- Dimension 2 provides historical information and helps us glean insights into what the passage meant for its first readers.
- Dimension 3 gives us insight into how to apply insights from scripture to life situations.
- Dimension 4 offers each person a daily personal Journey Plan for those interested in reading the whole Bible verse by verse.

In September, we will begin Volume 8 – Ezekiel – Malachi. Bible Study will begin on Monday, September 16, 2013; meeting at Noon and at 7:00 p.m. in the Adult Education Room. We will have 13 sessions. If you are interested in joining the class, the study book costs 11 dollars.

Please call the church office at 410-339-7770 to let us know if you are interested or place your name on the sign-up sheet located on the bulletin board in the hallway leading into Van Metre Hall.

Assistance Center of Towson Churches (ACTC) renovation and expansion

The ACTC, a local mission's project which Hunt's has supported for many years with food collections and financial support, is remodeling and expanding its building in the heart of Towson, next to Calvary Baptist Church, in order to better serve its clientele. They are using volunteer labor, assisted by a general contractor, a member of Timonium UMC, who is donating his time and expertise! Virtually every Saturday (but not necessarily all) and normally one day per week (presently Thursday, but not necessarily all) until the project is completed (hopefully by the end of October). Volunteers gather about 8:00-8:30 a.m. at the site. They are seeking volunteers, either skilled or helpers. Of course, they would prefer a commitment, albeit they are excited to see any volunteers (new or returning). Starting in September, they anticipate working on Tuesdays too.

The more volunteers the sooner the ACTC building will be completed and the sooner the ACTC can be functioning better, as ACTC operations are in temporary quarters now. The work site is limited in size and there is a max number of volunteers which can feasibly work at any one time, albeit there have been only eight to eleven volunteers when I have worked (from the 48 or so churches which support ACTC and not all of the volunteers have even been members of those churches). The existing building is completely gutted and one end of the addition is framed. When I have been there, the following have been done: broken cinder block and brick, and wood from demolition work, loaded into a roll-off container; wood siding, removed off the existing building; soffit board (but not the fascia), removed; cinder block courses, a concrete pad, and interior wood framing, demolished; an electric panel, moved; wall and window framing, fabricated to be eventually installed; forms for a concrete pour, placed; concrete footers for a cinder block wall, poured; and then the forms, removed; OSB, nailed on the walls for the new siding; rows of block courses, installed; etc. Unfortunately, the scope of the renovation expanded with the discovery of termite damage which necessitated more demolition of the existing building than initially envisioned.

On Saturdays, lunch is typically provided in the church basement (for the past three Saturdays, a very good lunch too); an on-site refrigerator has bottles of water and drinks. On Thursdays, the volunteers go to lunch nearby with ACTC picking up the tab for sandwiches. Parking is free, though limited.

This is like the Baltimore County Christian Workcamp (BCCW), but sans breakfast and making a bagged lunch at Hunt's, as well as not having to travel throughout the County to help residents; but this ACTC mission's project is also using volunteers to save monies in order to be able to help more of those who are less fortunate. Therefore, if you missed the chance to participate in BCCW or, even if you did, volunteer a day to help the ACTC. The work projects will vary from week to week as work progresses, which means, unless one knows what happened the previous work day, a volunteer does not know what type of tools to take, though there are normally ample tools on-site.

A member of Halethorpe-Relay UMC and long-time Baltimore County Christian Workcamp volunteer has his own personal mission project wherein he picks up metal at no cost and sells it in order to donate funds to various local charities. He is able to donate thousands of dollars each year to Ronald McDonald House, Manna House, etc. He picks up and takes virtually anything metal, such as aluminum siding, old swing sets, bikes, cast iron sinks, metal cabinets, gutter, etc. He picked up some metal from behind the Scout Shack several months ago, as well as metal at some of the recent BCCW sites. If you have anything metal and do not know how to get rid of it, give him a call to see if he would be interested.

The octogenarian's name is Yarb Ballard and he lives in Halethorpe; his cell phone number is 443-386-5986 (no e-mail address).

HUNT'S MISSIONS

Many opportunities are available, through Hunt's Church, to serve the needs of others both locally and abroad. You can pick up a partial list of these at the back of the sanctuary. Look for the bright yellow sheet. If anyone has an idea or would like more information on any project, please contact Melissa Regan at melissa.regan2@gmail.com.

Summer Missions Report – THANK YOU to the congregation for your support and donations:

- New undershirts – 28
- New socks – 140 pairs (!)
- Pairs of pants – 28
- Shirts – 60
- Pairs of shoes – 8

September Missions – The Board of Child Care

The Board of Child Care is a United Methodist organization that serves children and families who require physical, emotional, behavioral and social support. Services include residential care, foster care, mental health services, and a school.

You can help support them this month with your Special Offering, which will go towards school supplies for these children as well as special events organized by the Auxiliary group, and also by continuing to collect and bring in box tops.

– Missions News –

We will be planning to serve a meal at Manna House on a Saturday morning this fall. Watch for announcements in the near future.

*We have developed a connection with the Mondawmin Community in Baltimore over the past year. On Saturday, Sept. 21, at 1 p.m., some choirs in that community will be giving a “Make a Joyful Noise” concert to support two student interns. The concert will be held at Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church at 2812 Reisterstown Road, just 15 minutes from Hunt’s. They will be wearing some of the retired Hunt’s Church choir robes!
