"Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Surely we do not need, as some do, letters of recommendation to you or from you, do we? You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, to be known and read by all; and you know that you are a letter of Christ, prepared by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts." – 2 Corinthians 3:1-3

Friends,

After my wife, Laurie, cleaned her closet one day, she came to me with a stack of letters in a plastic bag. She said, "These are the letters you wrote me when we were courting. I bet you thought I didn't save these?" Well I was certainly pleased and touched that she did. When I started reading what I had written however, I said to myself, "Is this really me? I am amazed that she read all these letters and still loved me enough to marry me." I noticed that I really tried to impress her in these letters.

With the widespread popularity of texting and emailing, the art of penmanship and letter writing is beginning to wane. Even so, I do still get a few written letters now and then.

Much of what we know about the early beginnings of Christianity is due to letters written by the Apostle Paul. His letters were love letters, letters of correction, letters of exhortation, letters of instruction and letters of theological insight.

Paul's second letter to the church in Corinth has been referred to as his 'painful letter.' There were some followers in the churches that looked upon themselves as more gifted, more talented than others.

They were stuck on themselves and believed that they were more spiritual than the other believers. That’s why Paul asked the question, “Are we beginning to commend ourselves again?” Paul encouraged them to see themselves as being blessed through God’s Spirit and not because of their own efforts.

Well, I am so blessed that Laurie loves me for who I am and not for what I impress upon her as to who I am. And that is how God loves us. God has made each of us unique in our own right. We need not to impress God for God sees the human heart. In other words, you and I are called to be what God has made us to be.

While attending The Festival of Homiletics a week ago in Denver, I heard an Episcopal Bishop lecture on preaching. As an African-American growing up in the South, he had a unique preaching style born out of that tradition. He told the story of once being invited to Harvard to give a lecture. The university planner of the event reminded him how to stand behind the podium and lecture. But that was not who he was nor his tradition. So he gave the lecture in his style. After telling this story he said, “When you’re you, then you’re being the best you that you can be.”

Well, I hope you enjoy the summer. In all that you do just be the ‘best you that you can be.’ That’s where God’s best work gets done.

Grace,
Gary

Kidder-Thomas Scholarship Fund

The Kidder-Thomas Scholarship Fund resulted from generous bequests under the wills of Sam Kidder and Jean Thomas. The sum has been invested along with subsequent donations, and the income earned from this investment is for scholarships for “worthy students who are members of Hunt’s Church.”

Trustees of the Fund will consider applications for scholarship aid each year. There are three trustees that oversee the fund: Chair of the Church Council (Leigh Leonard), Chair of the Finance Committee (Bruce Douglas), and Chair of the Board of Trustees (Ken Parrish).

Applications must be received by June 30, 2015.

(An application is included in this newsletter.) Additional applications are available at the Church Office. The completed application should be submitted along with an official transcript of high school or college grades, preferably through the spring of the current year.

Scholarships are for undergraduate students enrolled full time (12 credits or more per semester), and graduate students enrolled part time or full time (6 credits or more per semester), in an accredited college or university in the United States.

In awarding scholarships, the Scholarship Trustees will primarily consider the applicants’:

- Academic merit
- Financial need
- Church involvement and activities
- Community involvement and leadership

Scholarship amounts will vary depending on the number of scholarships awarded each fall and the income earned from the investment principal. Generally, the awards will be in the range of $500 to $1,500.

Applicants must make an annual application for each year of full time undergraduate or part or full time graduate status.

Church Project Mornings

Trustees

Our next monthly project morning will be next Saturday, May 30. We have a few outdoor projects in mind that include power washing, trim painting, and caulking. We have a small load of debris for a trip to the dump, if a pickup truck that is allowed to haul stuff in its bed shows up. We still have frozen hot dogs and hamburgers from last month to cook on the grill for everyone who stays or stops by for lunch. 9am – noon, plus a little fellowship time for lunch.

The June project morning will be June 20. We haven't worked on our task list for that day, but there's still time. Please mark your calendars and join us for some demonstration of your skills and lunch on the grill.

Capital Projects

Much to the delight of the preschool children and teachers, the broken heat pump in VanMetre Hall was repaired at the end of the first full week above 80 degrees. With that behind us, we are turning our attention to the flagstone sidewalk around the church,

tracking down and sealing the Agapé roof leak once and for all, making repairs to the steeple, and a few other building improvements we may try to address over the summer.

In addition to the immediate concerns, we still have a total roof replacement within the next 10 years or so. We "live" in $2 million worth of buildings that are between 75 and 140 years old. This scenario is not cheap to maintain.

PLEASE KEEP THESE PROJECTS IN MIND FOR THE JUNE SPECIAL OFFERING THAT SUPPLEMENTS OUR MAJOR PROJECTS FUND.

BALTIMORE COUNTY CHRISTIAN WORKCAMP

The Baltimore County Christian Workcamp (BCCW) was founded by two United Methodist ministers in 1984. It is now run by lay people and is completely ecumenical, with Baptists, Catholics, Evangelicals, Presbyterians, United Methodists, and other faiths involved. Its task is to “share the love of Christ by improving the homes of and providing assistance for some limited income families in Baltimore County.” Each year, over 30 houses are repaired, from Dundalk to Essex to Parkville to Randallstown to Catonsville to Lansdowne, all during one week in July. The Baltimore County Christian Workcamp will take place July 19-24, with their Kick-Off Dinner & Auction taking place on July 19th.

It is structured like those workcamps that many travel far from home to attend for a week or more. However, with the work sites in the County, it has become a commuters' workcamp where volunteers only need to commit for one day and can sleep in their own bed each night.

The day starts with breakfast here at Hunt's Memorial United Methodist (the host church), where bagged lunches are also prepared. Volunteer workers of all ages and with varying skills and abilities are then divided among the work sites. All types of repairs may be done -- plumbing, electrical, carpentry, ceilings, walls, roofs, porches, steps, insulation, general clean-up, interior and exterior painting, caulking, ramps and much more. Each night a different church hosts a dinner for the volunteers, and there are several evening activities planned

For additional information, please contact Steve Lippy (410-296-9150).

In addition to volunteer workers, the BCCW can always use supplies and donations. BCCW is a 501(c)(3) organization, and donations are tax deductible to the extent allowable by law.

Kick-Off Dinner & Auction

Auction Items Needed!

Steve Lippy will be accepting these items until 11:00 a.m. on Sunday, July 19th.

If you have anything that is new that is cluttering your home (example: an unwanted gift) kindly donate it to this worthwhile cause.

Cooks – cookies, cakes, pies, muffins ... would be appreciated.

Crafters – theme baskets are always sought-after items!

Gifts Cards – were very much appreciated last year

There will also be a “Flea Market” and a “Used Book Sale”.

Donations of these types of items will be greatly appreciated!

If you would like to attend just the auction to help support the BCCW financially, it will begin by 5:30 p.m. and will continue until the after-dinner meeting is completed (around 7:30 p.m. or so).

In addition to physically working at a job site for one or more days you can also ...

- Pray during the week of July 20-24 for the safety of the volunteers.

- Donate non-perishable food items that will be shared with the various families helped by BCCW

- Donate baked goods

that will be used in the BCCW workers' lunches

- On Sunday, July 19th help is needed to set up tables and chairs for the evening dinner. If you are able to help, contact Steve Lippy.

- Contact Jody Waters to volunteer to be a “helping hand” with preparing the breakfast for the BCCW volunteers on Monday, July 20th.

- Make financial contributions to Baltimore County Christian Workcamp

An Important Message From Daryl Brown who is on our Prayer List

“Travel recommendation. Sometimes we travel far under extenuating circumstances. We need a safe, secure, caring environment. If you must travel for cancer treatment far from home as I have been for 3 years, I highly recommend investigating American Cancer Society’s Hope Lodges throughout the country. Recent stays at the ACS Hope Lodge sponsored by pharmaceutical giant, AstraZeneca, in Philadelphia, has been a special respite for me .... Fox Chase Cancer Center does all the reservations. Cancer travel? Do look into Hope Lodges. No charge.”

You may know someone who can be helped by this information.

Please pass it on.
